

YOUR PERSONAL ACTION BOOK

One Deep Work Hour

Protect one real hour until it becomes the default.

Generated Jul 21, 2026 · 90-day horizon

Your 90 days at a glance

Every goal and its checkpoints on one timeline — so you can see how the next 90 days fit together, not as separate plans.

DAY 30

Mind. Held one protected 60-minute focus block daily for two weeks

Craft. Did my most important task first thing, 5 days a week, for two weeks

DAY 60

Mind. Kept my phone out of reach through every focus block for two weeks

Craft. Held a daily distraction-free focus block for three weeks

DAY 90

Mind. Finishing my top priority before noon most days

Craft. Starting the hard thing early is now my default

MID-POINT CHECK-IN · AROUND DAY 45

Halfway through, take five minutes and answer these honestly:

1. What's actually working? Do more of it.
2. What's not? Shrink it until it's easy, or drop it.
3. What's the one thing you'll fix for the second half?

Reclaim deep focus

Protect daily focus blocks so the important work actually gets done.

THE CHALLENGE

I can't focus — always distracted

WHY IT MATTERS

A few hours of real focus beats a whole scattered day.

HOW THE PLAN UNFOLDS

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| Week 1 | Do your first actions and start your keystone habits. The only goal this week is to begin. |
| Weeks 2–4 | Make the routine automatic and repeatable, working toward: Held one protected 60-minute focus block daily for two weeks. |
| Month 2–3 | Turn the routine into a result you can point to, working toward: Finishing my top priority before noon most days. |

KEYSTONE HABITS

Morning focus block

Right after I start work, I will do one 60-minute focus block on my top task.

Single-tasking

Before opening a new tab or app, I will ask if it serves my current task.

YOUR FIRST ACTIONS

- ☐ Pick tomorrow's one thing
Each evening choose the single most important task for the next day.
- ☐ Create a phone-free zone
Put the phone in another room during your focus block.

☐ Time-box distractions

Batch email and messages into two set windows instead of all day.

TRACK IT · FIRST TWO WEEKS

Check a box each day you do the habit. Copy it for the weeks after.

IF-THEN PLAN

When I reach for my phone, then I leave it in another room during focus blocks.

When everything feels urgent, then I do the one task I pre-picked last night first.

When I feel the urge to switch tasks, then I jot the new thought down and finish the current one.

Beat procrastination on what matters

Start the most important work first, in focused blocks, before the day fills up.

THE CHALLENGE

I procrastinate on the work that matters

WHY IT MATTERS

The work you avoid is usually the work that moves your life forward.

KEYSTONE HABITS

Most important task first

When I start my workday, I will do my single most important task before anything else.

Two-minute start

When I'm avoiding a task, I will commit to just two minutes to break the freeze.

Protect a focus block

At my scheduled deep-work time, I will close distractions and work in one block.

YOUR FIRST ACTIONS

☐ Pick tomorrow's one thing tonight

Decide your single most important task the night before so there's no morning debate.

☐ Shrink the first step

Break the task down until the first step is too small to resist.

☐ Kill your top distraction

Put your phone away and block the sites that pull you off during focus blocks.

TRACK IT · FIRST TWO WEEKS

Check a box each day you do the habit. Copy it for the weeks after.

IF-THEN PLAN

When I drift to busywork, then I return to my one important task before doing anything smaller.

When a task feels paralyzing, then I shrink it to a two-minute first step and just start.

When there's no deadline pushing me, then I set my own deadline and a focus block to meet it.
